RULING ON ENTITLEMENT¹

On November 30, 2018, Mark Mueller filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, et seq.,² (the “Vaccine Act”). Petitioner alleges that he suffered a shoulder injury related to vaccine administration (“SIRVA”) as a result of an influenza vaccination administered on December 3, 2017. Petition at 1. The case was assigned to the Special Processing Unit of the Office of Special Masters.

On November 26, 2019, Respondent filed his Rule 4(c) report in which he concedes that Petitioner is entitled to compensation in this case. Respondent’s Rule 4(c) Report at 1. Specifically, Respondent “has concluded that petitioner’s alleged injury is consistent with SIRVA as defined on the Vaccine Injury Table.” Id. at 5. Respondent further agrees that “petitioner suffered the residual effects of his condition for more than six months” and that “petitioner has satisfied all legal prerequisites for compensation under the [Vaccine] Act.” Id.

In view of Respondent’s position and the evidence of record, I find that Petitioner is entitled to compensation.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
